Ergonomic - and easy Wolfangel...

ergo.gun is Wolfangel's new spray gun. Perfect for our spraying systems and for your production. It combines the usual reliability, easy care and maintenance with the best ergonomics. Best under control and therefore best for the results of your components. You are completely flexible, because the handle is quickly replaced and so it does not matter whether your employee is left- or right-handed, has large or small hands.

Reliability and ergonomics are paramount here. Whether gelcoat or fiber spray gun.
